

Literacy

- RWI phonics - set 1 letter sounds and blending/segmenting
- Writing lists, labels, plans, wanted posters, speech bubbles and comic strips.
- Reading books and word lists.
- Supertato and superworm books, story maps, character descriptions and alternative stories
- Reading comprehension tasks.

Maths

- Solving addition and subtraction number sentences
- Naming and describing the characteristics of 2D and 3D shapes
- Sequencing numbers up to 20
- Learn its
- Doubling and halving
- Repeating patterns

Physical Development

- Superhero obstacle course
- Fine motor skills using finger gym exercises
- Moving like a superhero
- Handwriting
- Cutting skills activities to help with scissor control
- Learning how to use creative tools

Communication & Language

- Play a listening and attention games.
- Learn and use topic specific vocabulary relating to superheroes and good and evil.

Learn and use vocabulary relating to Supertato,

Organise thoughts and ideas and plan an alternative ending.

Understanding the World

- Looking at the natural world and making observations as Winter turns to Spring.
- Start a class timeline.
- Using a paint program to design their own superhero
- Science investigation into magnets.

Expressive Art & Design

- Making superhero masks, cuffs and capes etc
- Painting a character from Supertato story
- Using instruments to make superhero noises and think about how the characters move
- Design and make their own superhero and their own super powers

Reception Our Topic Superheroes

Personal, Social & Emotional Development

- Do all superheroes have powers? Who is a superhero in our community?
  - Discuss people who help us every-day
  - Keeping ourselves healthy and safe
- Manage our own needs—personal hygiene, dressing and undressing

As well as working from this medium term plan, we will also plan activities based on particular interests of the children.