

Geography- Africa, Asia and Australasia

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Associated Diagram	Sticky Knowledge
Africa	One of the largest continents on Earth	 Draw the equator line on the map.	What are the main physical regions of Africa: Sahara, Sahel, Ethiopian highlands, savannah, Swahili coast, rainforest
	60% of the worlds population live here		Asia: mountain systems; plateaus; plains, steppes, and deserts; freshwater environments; and saltwater environments.
Asia	Also known as Oceania main two countries Australia and New Zealand		Australasia: Temperate Australasia, Central Indo-Pacific, and Eastern Indo-Pacific.
	Also called Australasia		What are the main cities of Africa: Lagos, Nigeria-Cairo, Egypt Asia: Tokyo, Japan-Dehli, India-Beijing, China Australasia: Sydney, Perth, Adelaide
Australasia	Little or no rain and too barren to support vegetation.		Name some countries that are in Africa Nigeria, Egypt, Ethiopia
	An imaginary line around the middle of the planet		Name some countries that are in Asia China, Japan, India
Oceania	A particular position		Name some countries that are in Australasia Australia, New Zealand Finish these words to do with grid references... Lat..... Longit.....
arid equator
location			