

Hi My Name is...

Subject Specific Vocabulary	Associated Diagram	Sticky Knowledge
Self		Everyone is different and this is something to be celebrated. We need to be tolerant of different opinions and behaviours and help each other.
Body		There are lots of different emotions that we can feel. We are working towards identifying main emotions happy, sad, tired, angry in ourselves and in others and what that can mean.
Emotions		There are many habits and ways we can look after our bodies to keep them healthy these include eating fruits and vegetables, drinking water, sleeping well, taking part in physical activity and brushing our teeth.
Healthy		Families can vary in size. Some families can include a mum and a daughter, some other families are much bigger and include, grandparents, aunts and uncles.
Family		Homes comes in many different shapes and sizes. They can be as small as just one room, or they can have hundreds of rooms. They can have several different levels or other homes joined on to them. Homes need to be made of strong materials such as mud, clay, bricks, stone and wood.
Friend		Identifying main features of a simple map of our local community such as roads, parks and buildings.
Home		Identifying buildings and their uses such as homes, libraries, shops and places of worship.
Community
Library
Map		