

Geography- Africa, Asia and Australasia

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Associated Diagram	Sticky Knowledge
Africa	One of the largest continents on Earth	Label one country in Asia, one country in Africa and one country in Australasia.   Give the 6-figure grid reference for the information centre and the coniferous tree in the bottom-right square. _____ _____	What are the main physical regions of Africa: Sahara, Sahel, Ethiopian highlands, savannah, Swahili coast, rainforest Asia: mountain systems; plateaus; plains, steppes, and deserts; freshwater environments; and saltwater environments.
Asia	60% of the worlds population live here			Australasia: Temperate Australasia, Central Indo-Pacific, and Eastern Indo-Pacific.
				What are the main cities of Africa: Lagos, Nigeria-Cairo, Egypt
Australasia	Also known as Oceania main two countries Australia and New Zealand			Asia: Tokyo, Japan-Dehli, India-Beijing, China
				Australasia: Sydney, Perth, Adelaide
Oceania	.Also called Australasia			Name some countries that are in Africa Nigeria, Egypt, Ethiopia Name some countries that are in Asia China, Japan, India arid	Little or no rain and too barren to support vegetation.		Name some countries that are in Australasia Australia, New Zealand Finish these words to do with grid references... Lat.....latitude Longit.....longitude equator	An imaginary line around the middle of the planet location	A particular position			